Whereas, There is now pending in the Congress of the United States Senate Bill No. 392, introduced by Hon. Charles E. Townsend, known as the Civil War volunteer retired list bill to authorize placing thereon, with retired pay, certain surviving officers who served in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States in the Civil War; and

Whereas, The Committee on Military Affairs have reported the same to the Senate with amendments and as thus amended, the committee recommended that the bill do pass; and

Whereas, The provisions of said bills are as pledged by Congress and President Lincoln at the opening of the Civil War to the several States and to the volunteers furnished by them; and

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, I would like to say this; that I am not finding fault with anybody who prints these bills, but if the Legislature appointed somebody to obstruct the passage of bills, it could not be done any better than it is being done now by somebody who has the printing in charge, because the passage of bills is delayed continually by the proof-reading and printing being at fault to such an extent that you do not know whether your bill is going to be right unless you follow it yourself, or somebody does it for you, and until I can get this bill in shape, until I can find somebody who is competent to get it from the printer's hands properly, I ask to have it returned to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. CATLIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, I find some objection to this bill, and I am informed by members of the Senate that if we could have a conference upon it, they feel that perhaps they could give their assent to it, and for that reason, so that I may be in a position to canvass for the bill myself, I would ask that the bill, in the absence of the Chairman of the Committee on Education, be referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special. I will get the members of the Senate together and, I submit, we can get a bill that we will all vote for.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

tion to the State Highway Department in so far as said act provides that the appropriations thereby made shall include and not be in addition to the amounts received by the Commonwealth from said source for registrations and licenses for the year beginning January first, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and years subsequent thereto.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, is there any gentleman in the House who represents the gentleman in the Senate on this measure? If so, we would like to have an explanation.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, while I do not represent the sponsor of this bill, I have heard it explained.

The purpose of the bill now before us is this: In 1913 the Legislature passed an act providing that all automobile licenses should be turned over immediately on collection to the Highway Department for road purposes. I think that the gentlemen understand that attention of the Legislature was called to the fact that automobile licenses should be paid immediately to the Highway Department. In 1915 the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, in presenting the bill, unfortunately made that purpose doubtful in regard to making an appropriation for the Highway Department of stating that the amount appropriated included the automobile license money. That had the effect of tying up the money which was paid for 1917 until the end of this fiscal year, June 1st, which would be an unfortunate situation for the Highway Department. For that reason we desire that this bill should pass so that the money collected for automobile licenses shall immediately be paid to the Highway Department so that they can continue their work in maintaining the highways.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Mr. ADAM C. SCHAEFFER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 90, File Folio 75, from the Bills on Third Reading Postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 90, entitled

An Act to amend section one of article two, Chapter seven of the act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, entitled "An Act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BALDRIDGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Adam C. Schaeffer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Schaeffer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ADAM C. SCHAEFFER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. BALDRIDGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman how many boroughs are there in his district?

Mr. ADAM C. SCHAEFFER. Mr. Speaker, about sixty.

Mr. BALDRIDGE. Is it not true that a similar bill was passed at the last session of the House and Senate and vetoed by Governor Brumbaugh?

Mr. ADAM C. SCHAEFFER. Yes, sir.

Mr. BALDRIDGE. Is it not true that a similar bill was passed at the previous session of the Legislature and vetoed by Governor Tener?

Mr. ADAM C. SCHAEFFER. Not that I know of.

Mr. BALDRIDGE. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say a word against this particular bill. I come from a district composed of eleven townships and eighteen boroughs; not any of them are large boroughs. I have made a special effort to find out the will of my people back at home. I find that in almost every instance even the burgesses themselves say that this bill should not be passed. I wish to inform you that a similar bill to this one was not only passed by the last House and Senate and vetoed by Governor Brumbaugh but a similar bill was passed at the previous session and vetoed by Governor Tener. That fact alone should cause this bill to be carefully scrutinized and examined. The main arguments in favor of this bill are two: First, that the people should be allowed to say whether they want a burgess elected again or not. Second, that good burgesses are so scarce, when we get a good one we ought to re-elect him. I think the first proposition is the only one worthy of consideration. Right here I might say that I was Borough Solicitor of my home borough for over seven years and I have made a special study of borough legislation and municipal affairs for over ten years. and it is my experience that in nine cases out of ten where a burgess is popular enough to be elected, when he goes into office and fulfills his duty without fear or favor he is usually so unpopular that he cannot be re-elected and it is the exception to the rule that a good burgess is re-elected. I might cite you a couple of instances in regard to a couple of towns in our county where justices of the peace by reason of catering to the undesirable people are able to keep themselves in office; I even might say in defiance of the better element of the town and in defiance often of the majority of the citizens. Some will say, "How is that possible." They build up their own political organizations and then when they come up for re-election they have enough candidates in the field to split their vote. How much more power could a burgess have if he had this right of re-election? I say further that this is one of the checks that the people have that should not be taken away from them.

Mr. ADAM C. SCHAEFFER. Mr. Speaker, I did not intend to say anything on this measure but inasmuch as my good friend from Allegheny has attacked it I feel it my duty at this time to say a few words.

Now I am going to leave it to the judgment of the House if a burgess of any borough should not have the same right as the supervisor, the school director, the councilmen, the tax receiver or the Justice of the Peace. I might cite other offices but I am only going to cite one more, mayors of third class cities.

My friend from Allegheny has advanced the argument about a burgess becoming a political power. I think his argument, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, is a joke, because you know as well as I do that there is no burgess can succeed himself, if this bill becomes a law, if he does not fulfil the office to the satisfaction of the majority of the citizens of that particular borough; and if he does not fulfil the office to the satisfaction of the majority of voters in that borough it is a cinch bet that they are going to defeat him. I think my friend from Allegheny County has a few burgesses that he is afraid of. I don't think that he has anything to fear. He says that the burgesses of that county are opposed to this bill. It was only last week that the State Association of Boroughs held their convention in this city and they passed a resolution endorsing this measure almost unanimously.

Now, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this is a meritorious measure and I ask you to support this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMUNICATION FROM THE STATE WORKMEN'S INSURANCE BOARD.

ALBERT L. ALLEN, Assistant Manager.

INSURANCE BOARD.
ROBERT K. YOUNG, State Treasurer.
JOHN PRICE JACKSON, Commissioner of Labor and Industry.
J. DENNY O'NEIL, Insurance Commissioner.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
State Workmen's Insurance Fund.
Harrisburg, February 19, 1917.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania.

In response to the Concurrent Resolution, directing the "Insurance Commissioner and Workmen's Compensation Fund to furnish list of Insurance Companies to whom State Compensation Fund Insurance has been underwritten with amounts of Insurance," the State Workmen's Insurance Board submits a full and complete list of all the Insurance Companies by whom the risks of the State

Workmen's Insurance Fund have been underwritten, together with the amounts of insurance carried with each of said companies, as follows:

London Lloyd's	$165,000.00
Excess Insurance Co., Ltd., London	20,000.00
Consolidated Assurance Co., Ltd., London,	15,000.00

Act 340 of the Compensation Laws of 1915, Section XIV, reads as follows:

"The said board shall have the power to re-insure any risk which they may deem necessary."

Efforts were made by the Board to place re-insurance of catastrophe hazard with a company or companies licensed to do this class of insurance in Pennsylvania. Not succeeding in this undertaking re-insurance was placed as above stated, after the Board had satisfied itself as to the reliability of these carriers. The Board has at all times been willing to re-insure its catastrophe hazard in reputable insurance companies licensed to do this class of business in Pennsylvania and still stands ready so to do, upon as favorable terms as those on which it is now being obtained.

State Workmen's Insurance Board,
ROBERT KENNEDY YOUNG,
Chairman.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PRAYING FOR THE SPEEDY PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL NO. 392, NOW PENDING IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House had concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, February 19, 1917.

Whereas, There is now pending in the Congress of the United States Senate Bill No. 392, introduced by Hon. Charles E. Townsend, known as the Civil War volunteer retired list bill to authorize placing thereon, with retired pay, certain surviving officers who served in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States in the Civil War; and

Whereas, The Committee on Military Affairs have reported the same to the Senate with amendments and as thus amended, the committee recommended that the bill do pass; and

Whereas, The provisions of said bills are as pledged by Congress and President Lincoln at the opening of the Civil War to the several States and to the volunteers furnished by them; and

Whereas, The present policy of the government is to retire all officers of the Regular Army and Navy at three-fourths pay for life at ages less than any of those who will receive the recognition accorded by the above contemplated act; and

Whereas, Full retired pay for life to all survivors of the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, and Indian Wars in accordance with rank has been granted and furnishes a commanding precedent; and

Whereas, Public Sentiment of the Nation is shown by the unanimous action of the legislatures of thirteen States, speaking for approximately sixty millions of our people, recommending the enactment of such a measure; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That our Senators and Representatives in Congress and the entire Congress of the United States of America be, and they are hereby, memorialized and requested that said bill, known as the volunteer retired bill, which will give Civil War volunteer retired officers the same aid according to rank as that given to the retired officers of the regular army, be speedily taken up and put upon its final passage; and be further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit certified copies of this memorial to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the National Congress and to each of the Senators and Representatives in Congress.

RESOLUTION DISAPPROVING OF THE PROPOSED PLAN TO IMPOSE A FEDERAL TAX UPON THE PROFITS OF CORPORATIONS, JOINT STOCK COMPANIES, ASSOCIATIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS OR ANY OTHER EXTENSIONS BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OF TAXES UPON SOURCES HERETOFORE RELIED UPON BY THE STATES FOR THEIR REVENUE.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SPROUL offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

Whereas, the Federal Government has already imposed taxes upon income, upon inheritance and upon the capital stock of corporations, all of which sources of revenue have heretofore been relief upon by the states for their income, and

Whereas, The further extension by the Federal Government of the plan of raising its revenue by taxes upon sources which the several states have heretofore relied upon for their revenues, constitutes a serious menace to the fiscal plans of the states, and

Whereas, It appears to be entirely possible for the Federal government to secure adequate funds for its legitimate needs through a judicious system of indirect taxes to cover current expenses coupled with the funding of amounts to cover permanent improvements,

Resolved (if the House concur), That the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania expresses hereby its emphatic disapproval of the proposed plan to impose a federal tax upon the profits of corporations, joint-stock companies, associations and partnerships or any other extensions by the Federal Government of taxes upon sources heretofore relied upon by the states for their revenues, and the senators and representatives in Congress from this State are hereby requested to oppose any such contemplated action on the part of the Federal Government.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives to the Ways and Means Committee of the National House of Representatives and to the Finance Committee of the United States Senate, and to each Senator and Representatives in Congress from this State.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to the proper committee, be suspended, in order that the resolution may be considered at this time.

COMMITTEE DISCHARGED FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF BILL.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Judiciary Special Committee be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 3, entitled

An Act giving the consent of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the purchase by the United States of land contiguous to the Frankford Arsenal in Philadelphia County for arsenal purposes and ceding jurisdiction over said land.

and that the Chairman be instructed to report the bill out.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, the bill to which this motion refers is one which I introduced on the twenty-third of January, known as the Arsenal Bill. I am asking for the discharge of this committee from further consideration of that bill to protect the rights of every member of this House, not because I am the sponsor of the bill, but to show by the vote of this House whether they sanction the discourtesy of one member to another. It is only for the purpose of protecting the members of this House from any further action like this that I ask that the committee be discharged from further consideration of this bill,—only for that, because if we don't stamp our seal of disapproval on actions like this, who knows who will be the next member of this House to be treated with the same discourtesy.

The SPEAKER. The Chair shall have to rule that no member of the House can question the courtesy of a committee or of a member. The gentleman will have to confine himself to the remarks as to why the motion should pass. I shall rule always that the rules of the House must be adhered to and that no action of a committee or member shall be criticized. The gentleman has the right to talk upon the motion under the rules.

Mr. DUNN. The members of this House are the only ones to decide a question like this and I bow to the will of the majority of the House,—whether they will agree to such conditions as exist.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, two bills came before the Judiciary Special Committee for their consideration. The bills both involved the taking of lands by the United States with the consent of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, known as the Frankford Arsenal in Frankford, Philadelphia. The bills necessarily had to be identical in form, because both of the bills contained a description of the property and the meets and bounds are alike in all needs and should be alike in all bills that necessarily cede the jurisdiction, or that grant any of the lands. These bills were given faithful, patient and decent consideration by the entire committee. I have no personal interest in either one bill or the other and only speak as the Chairman of the committee in order to back up the committee. Both these bills, after patient hearing, were carefully considered. The committee decided to report out the Perry Bill. That bill was before the committee again this morning. It had been up for second reading in this House last week. The committee this morning had a thorough discussion for the second or third time on both of the bills. A motion was made by one of the members of the committee to report out the Dunn bill. That motion was faithfully and properly and in an orderly manner put before the committee, according to all the rules of Cushing's Manual and Roberts' Rules of Order, and defeated, and the Perry Bill is now before the House. I want to say, further, on this question that it occurred during the last session and other sessions of this House, often, that two bills of the same character would come before a committee and that the committee has the right and prerogative to decide what bill to report. I am sorry that my friend from Philadelphia is personally displeased and that he takes this matter to heart, individually. So far as I am concerned I have no individual preference in the matter at all. The committee's action speaks for itself and I ask that the House sustain the action of the committee and vote against this motion.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Stern.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Stern, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Stern, when was my bill reported in his committee?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I don't keep the records of the committee and I don't know. The Secretary can answer that.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman: Is it not a fact that an exact copy of my bill was reported into this House on last Tuesday a week and theirs reported out almost three weeks after the introduction of my bill?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I don't know; the records will speak for themselves.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Perry.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Perry, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, with pleasure.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Perry, where did he get the description of the property incorporated in his bill?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I received that description from some real estate owners in the district who I have the honor to represent here.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman on this question: This bill for which the gentleman is sponsor, was referred back on last Tuesday to that committee, is that correct?

The SPEAKER. I don't think the gentleman can make an accusation.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I ask, is not that correct—was not that bill referred back to the committee?

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, the House knows that without asking me.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, that is all I have to ask. I will let the members of this House decide.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, it does seem to me that this discussion here concerning the preference to be given one bill over that of another when the bills are identical, in the same shape, is anything but creditable to the House. I don't think the members of this House are at all entertained or interested in the rivalry between the respective gentlemen who stand as sponsors for these bills. At the same time we are told that corrections ought to be made to the bill which has been reported out as well as the bill which my friend now seeks to bring out of committee and putting it on the calendar. It seems to me the proper action which ought to be taken now, in perfect consistency, would be to vote down the motion to take this bill out of the committee's hands and pay our proper respects to the other bill when we reach it on the calendar and then see whether it is in proper shape, and if it is not send it back, and in the meantime we can see what to do with the two sponsors who are equally interested in this proposition, because of their residence in close proximity to the Arsenal in Philadelphia, and probably we can restore something like a proper relation and friendly feeling that should exist in this House. I regret this bandying of words, this difference between two members from my own city and I think it would be well, hereafter, and perhaps in the next day or two I may offer a resolution, where a bill is introduced the first bill, if it comes in, if it is in proper shape, ought to be the bill reported out.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is not speaking to the question before the House.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I therefore vote against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, my point is—Rule 57 of the House Rules provides that when a bill has not been ten days in the hands of a committee and has been reported out by a vote of sixty members, the House may discharge the committee. As I understand the statement is made that the bill has not been in the hands of the committee ten days and it seems to me that the motion is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the bill has been in the committee more than ten days.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I thought the bill was referred to the Committee on last Wednesday. I was mistaken in the bill.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire the privilege of the floor for a few moments to state why I want action on this motion to-day. The Government has been waiting since the twenty-sixth of July last to get this privilege. Seven hundred thousand dollars have been awaiting to carry out the plans of the Government. We thought it would only take a week after introducing the bill when it would be in the hands of the United States Government in order to proceed with this work. Very nearly two months of this Legislature has passed and the legislature has refused to grant that permission. I have a letter here from the United States Attorney, Mr. Francis Fisher Kane, which I desire to read. Let me read that to you to show you how anxious they are to have this bill reported:

"Philadelphia, February 16, 1917.

Hon. James A. Dunn,
Milnor Street,
Bridesburg, Pa.

My Dear Mr. Dunn: After a conference with you, I have noted the verbal changes suggested by you and approve the same. I refer to the changes suggested in House Bill No. 3, giving the consent of the Commonwealth to purchase of land contiguous to the Frankford Arsenal, etc. I think the addition to the title suggested by Mr. Brown is all right, and I have no objection to the same. I am much obliged to you for pointing out the typographical mistakes made by the printer in the descriptions of the properties. I note you have also taken account of the material error of "thirty-three" where the words should be "thirty-one" on line 1 of page 4, of the printed bill.

"I hope you will be able to get your bill out of Committee on Monday night, and that it will go to second reading immediately. It is, of course, of great importance to the government that the bill in correct shape should be passed and approved as soon as possible.

I herewith return you copy of the bill with corrections.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) FRANCIS FISHER KANE,
United States Attorney.

FFK|MMS
Enclosure.
P. S. Will you please acknowledge receipt of this letter with enclosure?"

That is the reason, my friends, that we have been delayed two months on a thing like this and the United States government is appealing to us and if we postpone action on this for another week and then take a recess for probably one or two more weeks while these plans calling for $700,000—and under the Civil Bill to-day I picked up to-day's Inquirer and read that the Frankford Arsenal is to get $297,000 more; $90,000 for magazine building to be put on these grounds, which is very important because the magazine is in the center of these grounds and any moment tons of smokeless powder and high explosives may throw thousands of our people into eternity; $165,000 for a priming shop; $30,000 for new officers' quarters; $20,000 for a wall and picket fence; and $10,000 for repairs to a road; $297,000.00 additional, which will make a million dollars for improvements. Is there any wonder that the government is anxious at this time to get this land and if you delay it you will delay longer protecting the people of our city.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker I only want to say a word or two more on this matter. I agree thoroughly with the gentleman that we should not delay action on the matter. The Perry Bill, which brings forth all that he is contending for, is now before the House, reported out this morning for Second Reading, and if this motion is passed it will delay the matter.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. Being no further remarks, the question is on the resolution offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Dunn, that the committee be discharged from the further consideration of House Bill No. 3. It requires sixty votes and the records will have to show who the sixty votes in the affirmative were; therefore the Chair will ask the Clerk to call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll as follows:

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, there have been so many inquiries of me this morning as to the exact purpose of this bill that perhaps it would be well if I were to call your attention to exactly what is intended to be done. The act of 1885 provided for the election of a tax collector in each of the several boroughs and townships of this Commonweath. That is a general law. By that act of 1885 it was made the duty of the county authorities, school poor and road authorities, to place their duplicates with this tax collector. The act of 1885 also fixed the compensation at a definite basis. It provided that the tax collector should receive two per cent. upon all taxes upon which a rebate was allowed, and five per cent. on all taxes collected to which a penalty was attached. This act was amended by the act of 1913, which changed the basis of the compensation by the fixed compensation and providing in its stead that the tax collector should receive such compensation as should be fixed by the boroughs and townships. This did not cover the county duplicates or school duplicates, and it is to correct this error that I have introduced this act at this time. The only change in the act is the eliminating of the words "boroughs and townships," and inserting in place the words "county, borough, township, school district or poor district," so that each authority which receives the taxes will have the power to fix the rate of compensation which the tax collector shall receive for collecting the taxes in that particular duplicate.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REPORT FROM COMMISSIONER OF FISHERIES.

Mr. BOVEE. Mr. Speaker, I move at this time to call up postponed report of Commissioner of Fisheries made in accordance with the provisions of a resolution passed in the House of Representatives the twenty-ninth day of January, A. D. 1917, calling for certain information relative to the installation of an adequate fishway in the dam erected across the Susquehanna River at Holtwood and place report in the hands of the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives for examination by the members of the House.

Mr. SHUNK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The report will be noted in the Journal, printed in the Appendix of the Journal, and the exhibits will be placed on file with the Chief Clerk of the House.

(For report see appendix.)

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented the following extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows, viz:

In the Senate, February 20, 1917.

Whereas, The Federal government has already imposed taxes upon income, upon inheritance and upon the capital stock of corporations, all of which sources of revenue have heretofore been relied upon by the States for their income, and

Whereas, The further extension by the Federal government of the plan of raising its revenue by taxes upon sources which the several States have heretofore relied upon for their revenues, constitutes a serious menace to the fiscal plans of the States, and

Whereas, It appears to be entirely possible for the Federal government to secure adequate funds for its legitimate needs through a judicious system of indirect taxes to cover current expenses coupled with the funding of amounts to cover permanent improvements,

Resolved (if the House concur), That the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania expresses hereby its emphatic disapproval of the proposed plan to impose a Federal tax upon the profits of corporations, joint-stock companies, associations and partnerships or any other extensions by the Federal government of taxes upon sources heretofore relied upon by the States for their revenues, and the Senators and Representatives in Congress from this State are hereby requested to oppose any such contemplated action on the part of the Federal government.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives to the Ways and Means Committee of the National House of Representatives and to the Finance Committee of the United States Senate, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from this State.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I think this resolution is out of order. I don't think that it is a part of the duty of the members of this House to instruct the National Congress as to what it shall do or not do, but to attend to its own business. I think that the Congress of the United States will be fully able to take care of its own buisness and that we have enough to do if we do the work that is before us. We have been in session for about seven weeks and we all know what we have accomplished. We have not accomplished a great deal and there is a great deal of work before us. I feel that this is an unjust slap at the Congress of the United States and that we should vote this resolution down and attend to our own buisness here as members of this House. We have been elected to look after the affairs of Pennsylvania and not the affairs of the Government of the United States. I think that this is an unjust slap and should be voted down. I appeal to you as members of this House not to be so blind in your partisanship as to vote on a resolution of this kind.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate accordingly.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

The Speaker announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bill had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 54:

A Joint Resolution to provide for the participation by the National Guard of Pennsylvania in the inaugural ceremonies incident to the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson, President-elect of the United States, to be held in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, March fifth, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and making an appropriation to pay the expenses of the Governor and Staff and of a provisional brigade selected for that purpose.

Whereupon,

Session 1917 — 122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1917. No. 16.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, February 21, 1917.

The House met at 11 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, Thou who hast promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto Thee, have mercy upon us; pardon and deliver us from all our sins; confirm and strengthen us in all goodness, and make us hate all evil.

Defend us, Thy humble servants, in all assaults of our enemies that we, trusting in Thy defense, may not fear the power of any adversaries.

May we, as citizens, more fully learn of the counsel of the Father of our Country at this time.

We humbly beseech Thee for all sorts and conditions of men. Make known Thy saving help unto all nations.

May all Christian professors be led in the way of truth and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace and in righteousness of life; and, finally, after this life, to attain everlasting joy and felicity.

We pray Thee thus to bless and grant the prayer of Thy servants. Amen.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain the intent of it.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, this, of course, is a bill that comes from the Appropriation Committee, and as Mr. Woodward is Chairman of the Appropriation Committee I feel that he could better explain it than the sponsor. It was presented at the instance and request of the Chairman, and I would ask that Mr. Woodward explain it.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, this bill is for the purpose of transferring from one fund in the Forestry Department to another. One item in their bill two years ago ran short and there is a slight amount in excess of the amount necessary to carry on the work for the balance of the appropriation period in another; and this bill is simply a transfer of the money from one fund to another.

Shall the bill pass finally?

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 1.

He also laid before the Senate communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, February 26, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, Joint Resolution, No. 1, entitled "A Joint Resolution providing for the appointment of a Committee to investigate alleged mal-administration in public office and making an appropriation therefor."

This resolution has been freely discussed in the public press and by the members of your Honorable Body. The people are fairly conversant with its contents, its purpose and its origin. It has not been held to be in any important sense a measure in the interests of the people of Pennsylvania. It has no constructive purpose or aim. It is solely a partisan factional measure to give to an interested faction a powerful political club to compel its opponents, and indeed all independent citizens, to bow a subservient knee or suffer the consequences.

The Committee it creates would have full power to investigate all State, city, county, borough and township officials. It can even investigate individuals and could protect its political friends and menace its innocent political opponents. Such power should never be given anyone. It was never intended to be and cannot lawfuly be exercised by any legislative committee in a constitutional government. No essential good can flow from such a commission to the people of Pennsylvania.

There is no recognition of the rights under law of the parties it may select for investigation. They have no specification of charges. They are not advised of the source of the charges, nor the persons responsible for the same. They have no appeal from the rules of procedure that the Committee may formulate. They are, in fact, denied the fundamental rights which throughout the civilized world, in all courts of justice, are guaranteed to any and all persons.

The resolution would condone perjury, would invite irresponsible men to swear falsely against their fellows, would give opportunity for false statements with no opportunity to disprove the same, would at great cost to the citizens of this State, who are the least interested and most injured, conduct an investigation with public funds that are needed in many vastly more important services to our citizens. Moreover, the entire field of fact and the entire truth relative to the administration of the State's business can be known at any time by anybody without any expense whatever.

When this Joint Resolution was before your Honorable Body on January 29, 1917, I addressed a communication to you in which I specifically stated that "I court and invite the widest and fullest investigation of my official acts and of those of all associated with me in public service. I wish only that the investigation be so free, so fair, so impartial and so thorough as to establish definitely the truth or untruth of any charge that may be made," I submit that this Joint Resolution does not assure any such result.

This administration is confident that its acts when published will meet the hearty approval of all free, unbiased, fair citizens and we shall at any time furnish to you any and all information you may desire that will in any way make known to you and to the whole people the things we have done and shall continue to do to give to the people all facts relating to our public service. We are ready any moment in any fair way to co-operate to the full in the attainment of this end.

Factional strife works only harm. It can accomplish no essential good. Let the truth be known. Let the motives as well as the acts of men be fully revealed. Let the sense of justice, fair-play, and honor have full expression and the people will decide. That the outcome will develop the fact that this administration is giving itself steadily, honestly and earnestly to a clean and unselfish service to the whole people is my assurance and my conviction.

For these reasons this Joint Resolution is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

FOOD SUPPLY PROBLEM.

He also laid before the Senate communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, February 26, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: My attention has been attracted to the food supply problem in this Commonwealth. In our great urban communities the demand for food has in some cases been accompanied with disturbance of the peace if not with violation of law. Many staple foods have reached a price so unusual and so excessive as to cause serious concern for our armies of toilers and their families. There is great unrest and a condition of serious portent in this situation. The people of Pennsylvania must have food and they must have it at a price within their resources.

It is held that there is a shortage of food. The reasons for this shortage are in general as advanced, a small crop and unusual exportation. It is held that there is no adequate transportation, due to congestion in traffic, from the centers of production to the great centers of consumption of food. It is held that markets are cornered, that food is unduly withheld for the purpose of still further advancing prices. In fact, all sorts of statements are made and the general effect is to cause unproven criticism to lie against one or another agency in interest.

Of the truth or untruth of these charges I am not advised. That the truth may be known and known at once I respectfully suggest that you formulate such directive action as will empower your executive to name a Committee of broad-minded, capable citizens, who, without cost to the Commonwealth, may be empowered to make full and thorough inquiry into the food supply problem of Pennsylvania and report within fifteen days to your honorable bodies upon the matter committed to them together with such recommendations as to them may be wise.

Respectfully submitted,

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the communication just read be referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it be to reconvene on Tuesday evening, March sixth, at nine o'clock; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it be to reconvene on Tuesday evening, March sixth, at nine o'clock.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PROTESTING AGAINST BILL NOW PENDING IN CONGRESS REDUCING THE TAX ON OLEOMARGARINE.

Mr. EYRE offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 26, 1917.

Be it Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the General Assembly of Pennsylvania hereby enters a protest against the bill now pending in Congress, Section five hundred of which reduces the tax on mixtures or compounds heretofore known as oleomargarine, from ten cents a pound to two cents a pound; and

Be it Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House and Senate to the Senators and each Member of Congress from the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to the proper committee, be suspended, in order that the resolution may be considered at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, I ask for information. What is the purpose of passing this resolution at this time?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, I would like to hear a statement made by the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, as to why the resolution is introduced in the Senate.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, the purpose of the resolution is to protest against the proposed reduction in the tax on oleomargarine by the National Congress. Coming from an agricultural district, as I do, our people are greatly interested in the production of pure butter and they believe that the oleomargarine act is working advantageously as at present written and are not in favor of any change.

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to further interrogate the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to know from the Senator from Chester, whether or not it is a fact that 52 per cent of the butter consumed in Pennsylvania is shipped in from Illinois and other states?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, not being a butter manufacturer, I am not able to answer the Senator's question.

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, if that is the case, if the Senator from Chester does not know any more about butter than that, I do not know why the Senate should be so much interested in the butter of Pennsylvania. If of the 100 per cent of the butter sold in Pennsylvania 48 per cent is made in Pennsylvania, and the other 52 is made outside of Pennsylvania.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, that is true.

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, if the people want to eat oleomargarine at a less price, the poor people, and I am for the workingman this time,—then I say let them eat oleomargarine.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, if the Senator from Schuylkill prefers eating oleomargarine to butter he has my permission to do so, but for myself I prefer eating pure butter to eating oleomargarine. This matter has been discussed, I think, in the Senate of Pennsylvania for the past thirty years or more, and the Legislature of Pennsylvania have always stood in favor of the argicultural interests of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and it is in keeping with the record made by the Legislature of Pennsylvania that I advocate the passage of this resolution, in order that we may stand as an agricultural state in the same position that we have always heretofore occupied.

Mr. C. A. SNYDER. Mr. President, now that the Senator has greased the resolution I am going to be for it, it slides easier.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, February 26, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: My attention has been attracted to the food supply problem in this Commonwealth. In our great urban communities the demand for food has in some cases been accompanied with disturbance of the peace if not with violation of law. Many staple foods have reached a price so unusual and so excessive as to cause serious concern for our armies of toilers and their families. There is great unrest and a condition of serious portent in this situation. The people of Pennsylvania must have food and they must have it at a price within their resources.

It is held that there is a shortage of food. The reasons for this shortage are in general as advanced, a small crop and unusual exportation. It is held that there is no adequate transportation, due to congestion in traffic, from the centers of production to the great centers of consumption of food. It is held that markets are cornered, that food is unduly withheld for the purpose of still further advancing prices. In fact, all sorts of statements are made and the general effect is to cause unproven criticism to lie against one or another agency in interest.

Of the truth or untruth of these charges I am not advised. That the truth may be known and known at once I respectfully suggest that you formulate such directive action as will empower your Executive to name a committee of broad-minded, capable citizens, who, without cost to the Commonwealth, may be empowered to make full and thorough inquiry into the food supply problem of Pennsylvania and report within fifteen days to your honorable bodies upon the matter committed to them together with such recommendations as to them may be wise.

Respectfully submitted,
MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE.

Mr. ERDMAN asked and obtained leave of absence for his colleague, Mr. George J. A. Miller, on account of illness

Provding for a commission to investigate and report the increase in the cost of food-stuffs and other necessaries of life and to investigate the possibilities through marketing and other facilities of the reduction in the present cost of living; empowering said commission to issue subpoenas and providing for the attendance of witnesses, and the penalty for failure to obey such subpoenas; empowering said commission to work and co-operate with like commissions of adjoining States.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives (if the Senate concur), That a commission be appointed by the Governor of this Commonwealth, to serve without compensation, to investigate and report the cause or causes of the increase in the cost of food-stuffs and other necessaries of life. Said commission shall have power to work and co-operate with like commissions from adjoining States, and shall, in any manner in which it may deem advisable, thoroughly investigate the possibilities through marketing and other facilities of the reduction in the present cost of food-stuffs and other necessaries of life, and said commission shall not be limited in any manner whatsoever in its investigation; said commission shall report to the present session of the Legislature.

For the purpose of enabling said commission to carry out and perform its duties, the said commission shall have the right to sit in any part of this Commonwealth; and shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of books, papers, and other evidence, at the meeting of the commission, and for that purpose may issue subpoenas, signed by the president of the commission, and cause the same to be served and executed in any court of this Commonwealth; and if any witness shall refuse to testify any fact within his knowledge, or to produce any books or papers within his possession or under his control the secretary of the commission shall forthwith report the facts of such refusal to the court of common pleas of the county wherein such witness resides, or wherein his attendance was required, and all questions arising from such refusal shall at once be heard by said court. If the court determines that the testimony or evidence required by such witness is legal and properly competent and ought to be given or produced by him or her, then said court shall make an order commanding such witness to testify or produce books or papers or both, as the case may be; and if such witness shall thereafter refuse to testify or to produce books or papers, as aforesaid, in disobedience of such order of the court, then the said court shall have power to order the commitment of such witness to the county jail of the proper county for contempt.

RESOLUTION.

Mr. WEST offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

TIME OF NEXT MEETING.

Resolved, When the House of Representatives adjourn this week (if the Senate concur), it be to reconvene March 12, 1917, at nine o'clock P. M.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment to the resolution.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend the resolution to read "that when the House adjourns this week it shall be to meet again on March 6, at nine o'clock P. M."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, in offering this amendment to the resolution it is with the kindlest feelings toward my Democratic friends on the other side of the House, and with the warmest admiration for the President of these United States, but when it comes to our notice that there are a number of resolutons before this House, and before the Senate, to investigate he high cost of living, and when we find it to be true that men, women and children are starving around us I do not believe that Mr. Wilson himself would sanction this Legislature's taking any unnecessary recess out of respect to himself. I therefore move that the amendment be agreed to.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I favor the amendment offered by the gentleman from Armstrong. We are here to work and if we are to accomplish anything looking to an early adjournment we must keep at our work. Four years ago out of deference to our Democratic friends we adjourned on Thursday, February 27, and reconvened on March 5, remaining in session until Friday, March 8, during which time a large number of bills were passed finally.

Mr. CHARLES A. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I hope that this resolution will prevail. There are reasons for this——

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The Gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the gentleman is discussing the resolution, and we are now discussing the amendment.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Columbia will proceed.

Mr. CHARLES A. SHAFFER. The reason for this is this: You realize that if we convene on Tuesday it is a question whether many of the members who will go to the inauguration will be able to get back by Tuesday. Secondly, if we wait until Wednesday it is a question of whether there will be a quorum in this House. Third, we ask as a matter of courtesy to the minority party that this amendment does not prevail.

Mr. DEAN. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to these resolutions. The Constitution does not permit us to adjourn for more than three days at any time. We have been concurring in these resolutions and failing to get the business of the House attended to, and I think we ought to proceed to business. We can meet here until Friday and adjourn for the inauguration until Tuesday and then come back. Hence I am opposed to the resolution.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I do not have a great deal of interest in this amendment, but I want to be understood as in no way being favorable to holding up the work of this session, but I really feel that there is very little for us to do anyhow, even if we do come here. You know we have been coming here week after week and our work has not been ready. I do not see the necessity of compelling these men to come here week after week, and after we do come here sitting here for a few hours and then going home again. It is an immense expense to the members who come from the far corners of the State, and if our work is not ready, as it appears not to be, and if we are not ready to do business, as it evidently appears, I can see no harm in postponing this and letting it go over to March the twelfth. I do not ask this particularly simply as a matter of courtesy to the minority members, but I feel it is uncalled for and unnecessary, as has been stated before, that we have a meeting next week or a session next week. It will be slimly attended and I doubt whether a quorum of members will be here to do business. I think we might as well, in view of the conditions as they are, I think we might as well let the matter go over until March twelfth and then get down to real work and business. I think we ought to do that. The argument on the other side is that the people of Pennsylvania are starving and that we ought not to be out of session at this time. What good are we if we are here? What good can we do them? How can we help them? I trust that you will let this go over until March twelfth and then let us come back and get down to business, working three or four days a week, attend to our business and then go home.

Mr. STRAUSS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I would ask the gentlemen on the other side to yield to this resolution gracefully. It is not a question when we do our work just so long as it is done well, but to rush pell mell and do any kind of work is not doing good work. Many bills have been introduced here, and these bills ought to be taken home to the constituents of the different members and explained to them. I am asked about them every time when I go home, about this bill and that bill that they want to know about. We should inform them. We on this side of the House will go over to Washington and we will have our ceremonies there on Monday. We will naturally stay over until Tuesday and could not be here until Wednesday. We know, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, that you can pass this amendment if you choose to, but it will not benefit any citizen of the State of Pennsylvania; it will not benefit any piece of legislation here; it will not hinder or forward any piece of legislation here, and we can do the work, the real work that is to be done, just as well if we adjourn until March twelfth as we can if we adjourn until March sixth.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I only want to call the attention of the members of the House at this time to statements which have been made several times during the course of this discussion, and as a member of this House I take exception to that particular statement, and that is that if this House should convene on March sixth there would not be a quorum of members present to transact business. I believe that is an insult which we are offering to ourselves. I do not believe that the members of this House, if this House should resolve to come back here on Tuesday night of next week, would absent themselves and not present a quorum here to do business. I believe we have been elected and will come here to attend to our duties. The Senate, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, have very wisely said that we might reconvene next week on Tuesday night. The gentlemen on the other side are telling us that we will accomplish nothing by convening next Tuesday night. I believe that we will. I believe that we will accomplish a great deal if we come back on Tuesday night and work on whatever matters this House has to do. If the session only lasts for a day or two, let us come back here and we will have ample time to do our work as is upon the calendar. I hope that this amendment will prevail.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, many people will have the opportunity to see this House in session many times, but inasmuch as this is the last time perhaps in the history of men now living that we will ever again see a Democratic inauguration, I hope that the amendment will be defeated.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Milliron and Mr. George W. Williams and were as follows:

RESOLUTION.

Mr. MAURER offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

PETITIONING THE PRESIDENT AND THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO PLACE AN EMBARGO ON FOOD EXPORTS.

Whereas, The prices of wheat, flour and potatoes, not to mention other necessities of life, are rapidly rising, owing to the huge and unchecked shipments of food products from our shores, and

Whereas, Even the United States, with the largest wheat crop of any nation in history, making it dominant as "the granary of the world" cannot much longer stand the strain of its gigantic wheat exports, and

Whereas, The danger exists that, due to excessive exportation, even the seed required in our country for next year's crops may be shipped away from us and a shortage result therefrom, producing in turn a deficiency in next year's production; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That the President and Congress of the United States be and hereby are respectfully and urgently petitioned by this body to immediately place an embargo on shipments of food from this country and thus reduce the cost of living to a standard more in conformity with the wage rates paid to our working people.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections. The resolution will lie over for one day under the rules.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. WALTER offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 28, 1917.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, shall adjourn sine die on Thursday, May third, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, at twelve o'clock.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the resolution?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, before offering this resolution I took some pains to inform myself of the state of business of the House. I find that exclusive of the appropriation bills and all the repealing acts, which were sixty-eight in number, and which are now on third reading, there are in the principal committees of the House—that is, those having more than eight bills—there were on Monday last about three hundred bills and of those about forty were reported up to and including Monday last. It would seem, Mr. Speaker, that if the business of the House is conducted with reasonable dispatch and from the further fact that there is no legislation of very great importance pending or likely to be introduced, that the session of this Assembly could be easily concluded by May third; and all of us know, Mr. Speaker, that there is nothing conducive to work on the part of the members of the House and on the part of the committees of the House so much as a date fixed for final adjournment and we know that we must do our work. I believe that the business before this body and all that is likely to come before it can be satisfactorily transacted by that date and therefore I hope the House will adopt the resolution.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I hope that this resolution will be defeated for the reason that it will be impossible for the Appropriation Committee to get through with its work by that date. The House so far has done nothing towards raising the revenues which will be absolutely necessary if the State intends to carry on the propositions that it has undertaken and before we set a date for adjournment I think that something ought to be done towards passing some tax measures or raising some revenues that will assist in the matter.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this resolution be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The Speaker declared the ayes appeared to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for and ninety-five gentlemen voting in the affirmative and forty-two in the negative, the motion was agreed to and the resolution referred to the Committee on Rules.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker, I move the reconsideration of the vote by which House Bill No. 185, File Folio 623, entitled was defeated on final passage on Tuesday, February 27, 1917.

An Act, amending section six of an act, entitled "An Act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts, instead of imposing sentences; the appointment of probation and parole officers, and the payment of their salaries and expenses; regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases, and providing for their release on parole; their conviction of crime during parole, and their rearrest and reconviction for breach of parole; and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries," approved the nineteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven; in order that same may limit the minimum sentence so that it shall in no case exceed one-third of the maximum sentence.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman vote when the bill was under consideration?

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker, I voted "no."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I just want to say to the gentlemen of the House that I understood there was some misinformation circulated about this bill and for that reason I will very much appreciate the courtesy of the House if they will reconsider this vote so that the bill may be placed on another calendar and be further considered after necessary debate at a future day. It has merit in it and I will appreciate that courtesy.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the further consideration of House Bill No. 185, File Folio 623, entitled

An Act amending section six of an act entitled "An Act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts instead of imposing sentences the appointment of probation and parole officers and the payment of their salaries and expenses regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases and providing for their release on parole their conviction of crime during parole and their rearrest and reconviction for breach of parole and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries" approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven in order that same may limit the minimum sentence so that it shall in no case exceed one-third of the maximum sentence be postponed for the present.

Whereas The protection of these rights is not only a fundamental duty on the part of those entrusted with authority but appears to be at this time of such vital and immediate importance as to require good sense and intelligence on the part of all in authority to ascertain and provide tppropriate remedies in aid of these rights to life liberty and happiness for which alone any sttae or government has any good reason to exist and

Whereas We do not wish to be wanting in our attention to a condition of affairs now existing in many parts of this Commonwealth and in other States of the nation which has been called to our attention by the humble petitions of our people and by our own personal knowledge and experience in domestic life which convinces us that large numbers of people in all respects honorable and industrious are not enabled to enjoy life by reason of the increased cost of foodstuffs and other necessaries of life entailing wholesale suffering to men women and children and at a time when the nation is still at peace and appears to have been blessed with an abundant harvest and

Whereas This unpleasant and distressing condition of affairs giving rise to protest by those suffering therefrom has resulted in several serious disturbances of the peace and of the good order of communities otherwise lawabiding and respectful and

Whereas This condition of unrest is not likely to be settled by riot or by the disturbance of others in the lawful pursuit of their rights but may result in still further offences without accomplishing the end desired and thereby disturb and endanger the peace and dignity of this Commonwealth

Therefore Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That prompt and immediate action be agreed to to ascertain the cause or causes responsible for this increased cost of the necessaries of life which appear to have risen beyond the reach of those now suffering therefrom

Be It Further Resolved That the said joint committee shall be vested with the fullest and most complete powers which the General Assembly by virtue of the Constitution and the Sovereign Powers of a State can confer upon such committee for the accomplishment of its purposes and

Be It Further Resolved That the said joint committee shall be authorized to employ auditors accountants counsel learned in the law stenographers clerks messengers investigators and all such other clerical or skilled assistance as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties hereby imposed upon said committee and to further the inquiry by them to be made the Sergeant-at-Arms to be appointed by said committee is directed to attend said joint committee to serve all the subpoenas issued by it and generally enforce all the orders which said joint committee is hereby authorized to make and

Be It Further Resolved That the State dairy and food commissioner of the State is hereby directed to make careful inquiry through his department into the causes of these conditions in so far as the storage and any speculative operation within the State may or may not effect the price of foodstuffs therein and shall furnish to the said committee in so far as possible all information obtainable on said subject with any suggestions he may have in mind to bring about a reduction in any extraordinary or unreasonable increase in the price of foodstuffs as aforesaid and shall render such report or reports to the committee aforesaid no later than March thirteenth one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

Be It Further Resolved That the Public Service Commission through their department are herewith directed to make diligent inquiry into certain charges that the transportation companies operating within this Commonwealth are responsible for intentionally detaining or failing to promptly transport all foodstuffs offered for transportation and make report thereof to the said joint committee of the findings of fact together with any suggestions they may be able to offer in aid of the general purpose of this investigation not later than March twelfth one thousand nine hundred and seventeen

Be It Further Resolved that said joint committee shall as soon as possible but no later than April thirtieth following report its findings to the General Assembly with such recommendations as the said committee may deem expedient and shall confer with the Attorney General from time to time as the law officer of the Commonwealth and lay before him such matters or things which may require process by the Commonwealth for any violation of any of its common or statutory laws to the end that any person or persons firm or corporation in any manner unlawfully responsible for such conditions may be indicted therefor in such place or places where the alleged offence may appear to be properly triable In the report of their findings to this General Assembly the joint committee shall if possible recommend the remedy or remedies for the condition herein complained of to the end that proper legislation may be enacted to remedy and prevent such abuse as may be found to exist

Be It Further Resolved That it is the sense of the General Assembly that it is contrary to public policy and to the interests of good order that any person or persons giving evidence before said joint committee tending to show that he or she has been in any manner implicated in any corrupt practice or conspiracy punishable by law and bringing about the codition complained of should be indicted and prosecuted for the offence disclosed by such evidence or admission so given or made by him or her and

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of an act approved the thirtieth day of March one thousand nine hundred and fifteen entitled "An Act to promote the health and efficiency of firemen in cities of the second class by providing for a two-platoon system for firemen in the Department of Public Safety of such cities" which reads as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the head of the Department of Public Safety in each city of the first and second class shall from and after the first Monday of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen divide the officers and members of companies of the uniformed fire force in the employ of such cities excepting the chief engineer and assistant chiefs into two bodies or platoons one to perform day service and the other to perform night service The hours of day service shall not exceed ten commencing at eight o'clock in the morning the hours of night service shall not exceed fourteen commencing six o'clock in the afternoon In cases of riot serious conflagration or other such emergency the chief engineer of the bureau of fire or the assistant chief deputy or chief officer in charge at any fire shall have the power to assign all the members of the fire force to continuous duty or to continue any member thereof on duty if necessary No member of either of said platoons shall be required to perform continuous day service or continuous night service for a longer consecutive period than two weeks nor be kept on duty continuously longer than ten hours in the day platoon or fourteen hours in the night platoon excepting as may be necessary to equalize the hours of duty and service and also excepting in cases of riot serious conflagration or other such emergency as above provided

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I think it but fair to the members of the House to say a few words regarding this bill. It provides for a two platoon system for the firemen of the City of Philadelphia. There is at present in existence in this Commonwealth a statute which this seeks to amend, that has for its purpose a two platoon system in cities of the second and third classes. This extends the provision of that act to cities of the first class. In Philadelphia at the present time the firemen are compelled to work twenty-one hours out of every twenty-four. They are compelled to sleep with their clothes on. They do not get home except one day out of seven, and they are subject to be called out to alarms at all times of the day and night. This platoon system will give them a day or two off with their families, it will require them to work but twelve hours instead of twenty-one hours out of every twenty-four.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask if we could not have this bill distributed back here. I do not have anything back of file 633. They are lying on the back seats here but have not been distributed, and we have not had a chance to look them over.

The SPEAKER. This bill apparently is not on the file of the House.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, Bill No. 95, File Folio 627, is the last bill on my calendar.

The SPEAKER. If the bill is not on the file, it will have to be passed for the present.

The next bill on the calendar is House Bill 618, File Folio 257.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, Bill No. 260 is on our calendar. I see here that it is the next bill on the calendar at the top of page four.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman means the file of the House and not the calendar.

Mr. REYNOLDS. It is on the file. File Folio 643, Mr. Speaker. I have it here and those adjacent to me have it on their file.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I have it not.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I do not have it on my file.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, my calendar has no bills after file 627.

The SPEAKER. I presume that the gentleman from Allegheny is speaking of his file and not of his calendar.

RECESS.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I move we take a recess for fifteen minutes, until the bills are placed on the file.

Mr. EDGAR R. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion

The motion was agreed to, and at 11.05 the House took a recess for fifteen minutes.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 11.20 A. M.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up out of order at this time House Bill No. 724, the bill relating to the purchase of food products.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 724, entitled

An Act to authorize councils of cities of the first class to authorize the purchase of food products to provide for the sale of the same and the disposition of the proceeds of said sale

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 260, as follows:

An Act regulating the purchase of and contract for supplies in cities of the first class in this Commonwealth

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That councils in cities of the first class are hereby empowered to authorize the director of supplies in such cities to purchase or procure without public advertisement for bids and without entering into written contracts materials or commodities to the value of one thousand dollars ($1,000) provided that written bids therefor be first invited from at least three persons firms or corporations regularly engaged in the business of manufacturing dealing in furnishing or supplying the same and provided further That when a patented or proprietary article is to be purchased or procured the director of supplies in said cities of the first class may be permitted to accept one bid from the patentee or the person firm or corporation controlling the patented or proprietary article required which bid shall be accompanied with an affidavit stating that the prices quoted are the lowest at which said articles are sold to anyone in the open market

Section 2 Whenever advertised bids are received for furnishing materials or commodities for a stated period and the amount or amounts appropriated and available are not sufficient to cover the requirements for the period stated in the advertisement said councils in cities of the first class may authorize the director of supplies to continue said contract or contracts when further appropriations are made and become available for that purpose or when further requirements become necessary for the period stated and this authorization shall be set forth in the said contract or contracts and shall be binding upon the parties affixing their signatures thereto

Section 3 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

The said bill having been read three times at length on three separate days, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor of this bill to explain its provisions.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, the object of this act is to provide that men at the head of the various departments in the City of Philadelphia will be enabled to perform their contracts without advertising. Up until the present time, and for a number of years, it has been necessary for all contracts up to one thousand dollars to be advertised, and this bill provides that contracts exceeding one thousand dollars shall be advertised. It has been an annoyance to the City Solicitor of Philadelphia that no matter how small the contract, it was necessary for him to advertise it at an additional expense to the city. This gives the power to the City Solicitor to perform the conract and to see that a proper bond is given to enforce the performance of the contract.

An Act fixing the fee for service of jurors summoned by the sheriff of any county under writs of inquisition condemnation inquiry of damages et cetera

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Warren, Mr. Siggins.

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the sponsor of this bill just as to what class of counties it is intended to apply to—five hundred thousand or all counties?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, All counties.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, It seems to me that this bill besides the defect to which the gentleman calls attention, imposes an additional burden upon some counties of this State. It makes no difference to large counties, but it makes a great difference to the smaller counties. Some of the counties of this State in which the mill rate for county purposes is as much as eight mills, and this bill, in a small county, where the law compels at least thirty-six jurors summoned three or four times a year, it adds that sum to the expense. I simply call the attention of the House to these facts so that the members may be informed as to what they are voting on. As for my own county, I think we can well bear the burden, but I don't think it is popular in smaller counties—counties of from nine to ten thousand inhabitants; they will find it a very considerable addition to their burdens. I am old-fashioned enough to think that jurors ought not to expect compensation but all that they ought to expect is to be free from actual expenses. The time is not very long in the distance when jurors and witnesses and everybody who served in court did so without any compensation at all. That was supposed to be part of one's duty as a citizen. And that idea has been so far departed from that now you must compensate a man if he performs any public duty.

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, the reason I ask this question of the sponsor of the bill, as to what it refers to, is because in the original the title is amended to apply to all counties, but in line seven of section one it does not appear to read the same but applies only to counties of over five hundred thousand.

The SPEAKER. That probably is a typographical error and should be corrected in committee.

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say that I will have to vote against this bill for this reason: That in a county the size of ours it is too broad and makes expenses too heavy in such as coroner's inquests and lunacy proceedings. I do not like to come out on the floor and attack a bill without first having talked to the sponsor. I endeavored to interview Mr. Stadtlander before the bill was presented, but he was not in his seat.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I think I ought to say a word or two to the House in reference to this bill, inasmuch as it was reported from the Judiciary General Committee. I remember the discussion that took place in regard to the bill at the time when it was before the committee. The bill, in its original shape, as you can see by reference to the folio, simply applied to counties having a population of over five hundred thousand. It was talked over by members of the committee and they thought it ought to be made general throughout the State. Therefore, the amendment was put in which may be an injustice to some of the smaller counties, and if a change ought to be made in this bill, from the shape in which it appears now, to the effect that it should not be general but be confined to what was originally intended, I think it would be the proper thing to pass the bill at this time and allow the sponsor to see that the necessary corrections are made in the Senate when it comes before that body. The general purpose is good.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 515, entitled

An Act to clarify the statute law of the Commonwealth by repealing certain acts and parts of acts of Assembly relating to cemeteries.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I want to say a few words in reference to these repealers which we are about to take up. It is not the intention to repeal or change the law in any particular whatever. The purpose of the acts is to clarify the statute books, to take off the statutes all those various acts, one thousand and four, which have been repealed by implication at various times, which have been declared to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court and which have been replaced or substituted by subsequent acts at various times.

The work has been prepared very carefully and has been checked over numerous times by the capable men of the Legislative Reference Bureau who began the work four years ago and prepared an omnibus bill containing all those acts and presented it to the Legislature of 1915, at which time it was debated and passed and was vetoed by the Governor simply for the reason that the Attorney General advised him that it might be unconstitutional because all the different subjects were under one title and that, in the Attorney General's opinion, those acts should have been in separate acts. After the veto the Legislative Reference Bureau again took up the work and has put it in the form in which it now appears before the House, sixty-eight different bills each carrying all the acts under the separate subjects.

The work has been checked over time after time; every department charged with the enforcement of the different acts has been asked to look over those referring to its particular department, and every person and corporation named in the various acts has been notified and favorable responses have been received from everybody, and I think every precaution possible has been taken to see that no mistakes are made and no harm done by the passage of these acts.

I have a very carefully prepared brief here which with the indulgence of the House I will read, in which are the explanations why each of these acts it is proposed to repeal should be repealed. If anybody desires to know the reason in any particular case I will be glad to read the explanation.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 544, entitled

An Act to clarify the statute law of the Commonwealth by repealing certain acts of Assembly establishing holidays.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Whitaker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITAKER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FOWLER. I would like to have the gentleman explain why he would like to have that law repealed at this time.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, the act in question now repeals the act of 1889, No. 25, P. L. 49, which created, or made a holiday called Labor Day. The act has already been supplied by the act of February 16, 1911, P. L. 3, amending the act and naming the holidays, making the first Monday of September Labor Day. Therefore the original act of 1889 is unnecessary. I will read the act of 1911. I do not have a copy of the act, but I have Smull's Handbook, and on page 990, I read under the head of "Pennsylvania Legal Holidays" those created by the act of 1911, as follows: "the following days and half days; namely, the first day of January, commonly called New Year's Day;" and then skipping a few lines I read, "the fourth day of July, called Independence Day, the first Monday of September, known as Labor Day," etc., all of which is contained in the act of 1911, which is not repealed.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REPORT FROM SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE.

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House a report from the Secretary of Agriculture which the Clerk will read.

The Clerk read the report as follows:

Pennsylvania
Department of Agriculture
Harrisburg, February 28. 1917.

Honorable House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Gentlemen: In compliance to the resolution introduced by the Honorable A. Ramsey S. Black, we submit the following report:

It has been impossible for us to get the amount of product held by commission merchants and large store companies in the State, as there is no means whereby we could get this. There is no doubt that there are several millions of bushels of potatoes held by these agencies, as they were bought up early in the season and stored for their customers.

The potatoes held by fhe producers are very little in excess of what would be required for seed the coming season, as the high price offered has been an inducement for the producers to get rid of their surplus stock.

There should be adequate means for the State to get this information when requested, but as the Department has had no appropriation for that kind of work, outside of the cold storage houses, you can readily see that it is very nearly an impossibility to get it.

Hoping that this will answer your needs at the present time, I remain,

Very truly yours,
CHARLES E. PATTON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

No. 4.

There are no available figures showing that exportation of eggs from Pennsylvania, but the attention of the Department of Agriculture was recently called to one shipment of almost 1,000,000 dozen which were removed from a cold storage warehouse for shipment abroad.

No. 5.

There are no available figures on the exportation of food stuffs from Pennsylvania. The canneries in some sections had many orders for export trade and there is no doubt but that large quantities of canned vegetables and dried fruits were shipped abroad.

No. 6.

No. 8.

With the exception of potatoes, onions and sweet potatoes, practically the entire crop of vegetables grown in Pennsylvania in 1916 has been marketed. Estimates show that the growers hold enough potatoes to fill their home demands for table and seed, with about five per cent. of the crop remaining for sale. No figures are obtainable on onions, cabbage or other products that remain in the growers hands. During the fall and winter of 1915-16 the canneries sold all canned goods on hand, principally for export trade, and the past season was the largest the canneries have ever experienced. Growers of tomatoes, onions, sweet corn and beans sold large quantities of the season's crop to canneries for the filling of large export orders.

No. 9.

Reports from all sections of the State show the following potatoes in the growers' hands:

No. 10.

The Department of Agriculture has no facilities or power to determine or ascertain the holdings of potatoes or other produce by commission merchants, speculators or dealers or where such potatoes and produce may be stored, either in small or large quantities. There are undoubtedly large quantities of potatoes held in some sections of the State, but their adaptability to storage in almost any kind of a building where they can be kept from freezing and yet at a fairly low temperature makes it impossible to secure data on this subject.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the report be accepted and printed in to-day's Legislative Journal.

Mr. RININGER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, may I ask for information,—whether this is the report we asked for through the resolution presented the other day bearing on cold storage?

The SPEAKER. The communication indicates that it is. It is in answer to the resolution presented by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Black.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, does it give that information?

THE SPEAKER. The presumption is that it contains all the information that the Secretary of Agriculture can give us. After the motion by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Ramsey, is carried, it will be printed and be available to all the members of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is very sorry to have to announce to the members of the House that it would be very unfair to any members to have a bill come up for third reading at this time. Ten or fifteen votes might defeat any bill. That would result in the reconsideration of the bill, and it would take more time to reconsider it than postponing consideration at this time and allowing the third reading calendar to go over until to-morrow morning. I would suggest that we adjourn until to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, so that we can come here and clear up our calendar and enable the members to get away on the trains that leave between eleven and twelve o'clock.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. HOWARTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to and (at 4.45 o'clock P. M.) the House adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1917 — 122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4. HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1917. No. 20.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, March 1, 1917.

The House met at 9 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. S. G. Zerfass, offered the following prayer:

Dear Father in Heaven, may we ever hallow Thy most holy name.

Grant that Thy kingdom may come and Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, yea we glorify Thee.

Fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient, granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth and in eternity everlasting bliss.

Bless, we beseech Thee, the Speaker of this House on this his natal anniversary, give him many more years of health, prosperity and usefulness after more than a score of years in Thy service.

Pour out the dew of Thy blessing upon all of us assembled here this morning, and save us, is the prayer of Thy unworthy but humble servants. O Lord answer our prayer. Amen.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. E. E. Beidleman) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Rev. M. D. Lichliter offered the following prayer:

Our Father and our God, with praise and thanksgiving we draw nigh unto Thee, thanking Thee for the life of the present and for the promise of the life which is to come. We invoke Thy blessing to rest upon this body, upon the presiding officer, the Lieutenant-Governor and the officers and attaches, and upon each member, and we pray that in their deliberations they may have an eye single to Thy glory. We especially invoke Thy tender mercy and Thy loving kindness to be upon the Senator lying upon his bed of pain, apparently entering the shadow. May the everlasting arms of our Father God be underneath him and the everlasting peace of God rest upon him. Bless our nation in this, its hour of crisis. Bless him who guides its destinies and grant that unto him as the great problems come, he may be enabled by Thy grace to solve them as Thou wouldst have them solved. Hear us in our prayers, pardon us of our sins and save us through grace. Amen.
